2 PM - LAKEVIEW BUILDING

On Saturday, Jim Duis from the Dixon Park District's Ruth Edwards Nature Center will speak about his experiences from his visit to the Grand Tetons National Park and Yellowstone. He will present and engage participants in beginning approaches to drawing as it applies to the natural world. Make sure you make it to the Lakeview Building to check out this cool presentation!

Due to a lack of safe ice conditions on our lakes this weekend, our annual ice fishing tournament has been cancelled.
